

GOOD FIELD FACES BARRIER $10,000 MARYLAND HANDICAP TODAY

Minute Man, an Outsider, Takes First in Arundel

By RAY HELGESEN.

Seven 3-year-olds will face the barrier in the fourth race, the Maryland Handicap, with $10,000 added, at one mile and a quarter, feature event of a near all-feature program at Laurel today. Bygone Days, Jig, Serapis and Polly Ann are numbered among the seven who will parade in this, the second of a series of three $10,000 added stakes which feature the present fall meeting at Laurel.

Copper Demon is listed to pick up top weight, being scheduled to carry 113 pounds. Chateau Thierry, which will pack 111 of the "back break," is next on the weight list, both Serapis and Polly Ann are handed packages labeled 110 pounds. Muttikins, the J. K. L. Ross filly, gets away the lightest of the field, as she is asked to pick up but 105 pounds.

The Laurel card today should be a welcome relief to the faithful after the series of dog races which were run off yesterday.

Nothing stood out yesterday. They all seemed to be equally bad. The star shooters and the talent managed to put over about the same number of winners. The "performance" only cents put over three, while the house-and-lot contingent put over the same number. The
